Friday May, 25th, 2018 International Skills & Course work seminar 9 – 5pm Working Spots $180

Dogs must be working at the Masters/Championship level. This seminar is geared towards the handler/dog team that wants to be challenged on International style courses. Prepare to work and be pushed out of your comfort zone. International skills will be broken down and different handling options will be presented.

We will be providing light refreshments throughout the day. Indoor Crating is available, if you have any questions, email: brattypawsdogplex@gmail.com Auditors, can practice with their dogs during the lunch hour. Unlimited Auditors for $75.

Marco Magiolo

This seminar only has 10 working spots. This is a first come first serve registration. Marco will also be our judge for our 1st Bratty Paws Dog Plex UKI trial May 26th and May 27th.

About Marco: Passionate. Patient. Persistent. Pet-Lover. These are just a few of the characteristics that describe me. I know each animal is different, and I'll work with yours to give them the specific guidance they need. Whether you're thinking about getting an animal, have a new pet, or already own a pet with behavioral problems. I am here to help.

Veterinarian Graduated in Brazil, Master Degree in Animal Behavior, living and working in Florida since 2012. Dog trainer since 2005 and Dog Agility Handler since 2002. Marco already competed representing Brazil 2 times and representing the USA National Team in 2015 at the Americas & Caribbean.
